Art Unit: 1711

1. Claim 16 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Applicants have failed to define R within the definition of Y. The examiner has considered applicants' response; however, the position is maintained that the claiming of the R variable with no corresponding definition renders the claim needlessly ambiguous. In the absence of a clear definition, the scope of the claim and meaning of the claimed structure are unclear.

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 11 and 15-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by CA 2356685.

The reference discloses polyisocyanates containing allophanate groups wherein an ethylenically unsaturated group, such as an acrylate, methacrylate, or vinyl ether, is attached through the in chain allophanate group. See pages 4 and 5. The reference additionally discloses that stabilizers or reaction inhibitors may be incorporated within the composition and that the compositions are useful for coating substrates, such as vehicle bodies. See pages 9 and 17. Given that applicants have defined "polyisocyanate secondary product" at page 5 of the specification as being addition products of isocyanates, such as those containing allophanate groups, the position is taken that the polyisocyanate secondary product of claim 11 is met by an allophanate compound containing a double bond on the oxygen atom of the allophanate group. Therefore, given this interpretation, the position is taken that the allophanate group containing isocyanates of the reference are adequate to satisfy applicants' claimed "polyisocyanate secondary product". Since applicants have specifically and definitively stated within the response of February 27, 2007 that the claimed weight percent limitations of claim 11 only apply to the polyisocyanate and not to the polyisocyanate secondary product, applicants may not rely upon these limitations to distinguish the claims from the prior art. In summation, applicants have failed to distinguish the claimed polyisocyanate secondary product from the allophanate compounds of the reference.

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.

Any inquiry concerning this communication should be directed to R. Sergent at telephone number (571) 272-1079.
